		-	A CONTRACTOR OF THE PARTY OF TH
DISPATCH	CLAMBREARION	DOPAK	N STANCE AND NO.
UISTAICH	SECRET		PASA-5715
Chief, EC		HEADO	MOUS RE NO.
o COS, Austria; COS, Germany; Ch	ief, EB		- 201 02/0
			6-124-27/9
OM Chief of Base, Salaburg		DAN	14 Sept 1962
Recovery of GRIAUNCH-A/9 Signal Flan and Radio NON SECURED FOR YOUR Information			6 '45' - 1080X 'Y' ONE
		33	MARKED FOR INDEEDIG
			INCOME CAN BE ALDGED BY CHALFED HQ. DESK CHEY
FASA-5697, 31 July 1962			BY CONDIED INC. DESK CHEF
siderable difficulty was experient even though GRIAUNCH-A/9 had empling in digging up a small, round, has container holding the one time party tals which were issued to GHI until May 1959 according to say, the cryptographic materials them to this dispatch for BUCA's the plan and crystals after inspections.	aced them himself. At scaled can, but ads. In the can we LAUNCH-A/9 in Augus cor were in excellent disposal. (Note:	We ever una found so t 1955, tact rep condition	ntually succeeded cle to locate the ignal plan VYHES and but were not buried orts. Needless to no. We have attached opened and resealed
one buried for GHTMUNCH-A/9 by Upon review of the files it was I and crystals were included in the decided to exhume and relocate the shall retrieve signal plan PTMEX were unable to do so during this Lifter spending the bette of the 1959 RS-6 cache, we moved which had been emplaced by the ag cache location was exceptionally concealed and very well drained, cache for technical inspection. 1960) and two spare parts kits we under technical inspection by Mu we intend to repackage the set as same site. The geographic coordi	in May 1959 a learned that an add RS-6 caching combe RS-6 cache as according to the RS-6 cache as according to the after on to inspect GRL gent and good - a crevice The cutside of the RS-6 (see page are in "shelf" considered on the communication and return it to GRL	along with itional cainers. Son as secured with a rock in a rock in a contain to sity, of a section and a section	h a RS-6 and batteries. signal plan (PTMECOP) Since we have already curely possible, we that time since we arching for the rest 's other RS-6 cache in August 1955. The y cliff which is well ners appeared in ex- ecided to pull the RF/3 dated 23 November d checked out 100% . In view of this 9 for reburial in the one buried for GHTMUNCH-A/9 by Upon review of the files it was a and crystals were included in the decided to exhume and relocate the shall retrieve signal plan PTMEX were unable to do so during this 3. After spending the bette of the 1959 RS-6 cache, we moved which had been emplaced by the ag cache location was exceptionally concealed and very well drained, cache for technical imspection. 1960) and two spare parts kits we under technical imspection by Min we intend to repackage the set as same site. The geographic coordi arate cover).	in May 1959 a learned that an add RS-6 caching combine RS-6 cache as according to the RS-6 cache as according to the appearant of the after on to inspect GRIL gent and good - a crevice. The outside of the consumed with current RS-6 (see page are in "shelf" consumed a return it to GRI instes of this site.	along with itional cainers. Son as secured with a rock in a rock in a contain to sity, of a section and a section	h a RS-6 and batteries. signal plan (PTMECOP) Since we have already curely possible, we that time since we arching for the rest 's other RS-6 cache in August 1955. The y cliff which is well ners appeared in ex- ecided to pull the RF/3 dated 23 November d checked out 100% . In view of this 9 for reburial in the one buried for GHTMUNCH-A/9 by Upon review of the files it was I and crystals were included in the decided to exhume and relocate the shall retrieve signal plan PTMEX were unable to do so during this Lifter spending the bette of the 1959 RS-6 cache, we moved which had been emplaced by the ag cache location was exceptionally concealed and very well drained, cache for technical inspection. 1960) and two spare parts kits we under technical inspection by Mu we intend to repackage the set as same site. The geographic coordi	in May 1959 a learned that an add RS-6 caching combine RS-6 cache as according to the RS-6 cache as according to the appearant of the after on to inspect GRIL gent and good - a crevice. The outside of the consumed with current RS-6 (see page are in "shelf" consumed a return it to GRI instes of this site.	along with itional cainers. Son as security a rock in a rock in a rock in a rock in a contain to sity, of a section and a section are IDE	h a RS-6 and batteries. signal plan (PTMECOP) Since we have already curely possible, we that time since we arching for the rest 's other RS-6 cache in August 1955. The y cliff which is well ners appeared in ex- ecided to pull the RF/3 dated 23 November d checked out 100% . In view of this 9 for reburial in the NTITY One (under sep-
one buried for GHTMUNCH-A/9 by Upon review of the files it was a and crystals were included in the decided to exhume and relocate the shall retrieve signal plan PTMEX were unable to do so during this Lafter spending the bette of the 1959 RS-6 cache, we moved which had been emplaced by the as cache location was exceptionally concealed and very well drained, cache for technical inspection. 1960) and two spare parts kits we under technical inspection by Mu we intend to repackage the set as same site. The geographic coordi arate cover). Attachments: 1. Crypto materials 2. IDENTITY (USC)	in May 1959 a learned that an add RS-6 caching combine RS-6 cache as so OF and substitute I trip. er part of the after on to inspect GRIA gent and good - a crevice. The outside of the consumed with current RS-6 (see pages or in "shelf" considered in the CRIA consumed that instead of this site.	along with intional cainers. Son as see WINCH-A/9 in a rock in a r	h a RS-6 and batteries. signal plan (PTMEOOP) Since we have already curely possible, we that time since we arching for the rest 's other RS-6 cache in August 1955. The y cliff which is well ners appeared in ex- ecided to pull the RF/3 dated 23 November d checked out 100% . In view of this 9 for reburial in the NTITY One (under sep-
one buried for GREAUNCH-A/9 by Upon review of the files it was a and crystals were included in the decided to exhume and relocate the shall retrieve signal plan PTMEX were unable to do so during this L. After spending the bette of the 1959 RS-6 cache, we moved which had been emplaced by the accache location was exceptionally concealed and very well drained, cache for technical inspection. 1960) and two spare parts kits we under technical inspection by Mun we intend to repackage the set as same site. The geographic coordi arate cover). Attachments: 1. Crypto materials 2. IDENTITI (USC) Distributions 2 - EUCA w/stts 1 and 2	in May 1959 a learned that an add RS-6 caching combine RS-6 cache as so OF and substitute I trip. er part of the after on to inspect GRIA gent and good - a crevice. The outside of the consumed with current RS-6 (see pages or in "shelf" considered in the CRIA consumed that instead of this site.	DECLAS	h a RS-6 and batteries. signal plan (PTHEOOP) Since we have already curely possible, we that time since we arching for the rest 's other RS-6 cache in August 1955. The y cliff which is well ners appeared in ex- ecided to pull the RF/3 dated 23 November d checked out 100% . In view of this 9 for reburial in the NTITY One (under sep-
one buried for GREAUNCH-A/9 by Upon review of the files it was a and crystals were included in the decided to exhume and relocate the shall retrieve signal plan PREX were unable to do so during this L. After spending the bette of the 1959 RS-6 cache, we moved which had been emplaced by the as cache location was exceptionally concealed and very well drained, oellent condition and cache for technical inspection. 1960) and two spare parts kits we under technical inspection by Mun we intend to repackage the set as same site. The geographic coordi arate cover). Distributions 2 - EUCA w/atts 1 and 2 2 - Vienna w/att 2	in May 1959 a learned that an add RS-6 caching combine RS-6 cache as so OF and substitute I trip. er part of the after on to inspect GRIA gent and good - a crevice. The outside of the consumed with current RS-6 (see pages or in "shelf" considered in the CRIA consumed that instead of this site.	DECLASSOURCE NAZIWA	h a RS-6 and batteries. signal plan (PTMEOOP) Since we have already curely possible, we that time since we arching for the rest is other RS-6 cache in August 1955. The y cliff which is well ners appeared in expected to pull the RF/3 dated 23 November d checked out 100%. In view of this 9 for reburial in the NTITY One (under sep- SIFIED AND RELEASED BY SMETHODS EXEMPTION 3828 R CRIMES BLB FLARBERS
one buried for GREAUNCH-A/9 by Upon review of the files it was a and crystals were included in the decided to exhume and relocate the shall retrieve signal plan PTMEX were unable to do so during this L. After spending the bette of the 1959 RS-6 cache, we moved which had been emplaced by the accache location was exceptionally concealed and very well drained, cache for technical inspection. 1960) and two spare parts kits we under technical inspection by Mun we intend to repackage the set as same site. The geographic coordi arate cover). Attachments: 1. Crypto materials 2. IDENTITI (USC) Distributions 2 - EUCA w/stts 1 and 2	in May 1959 a learned that an add RS-6 caching combine RS-6 cache as so OF and substitute I trip. er part of the after on to inspect GRIA gent and good - a crevice. The outside of the consumed with current RS-6 (see pages or in "shelf" considered in the CRIA consumed that instead of this site.	DECLASSOURCE NAZIWA	h a RS-6 and batteries. signal plan (PTHEOOP) Since we have already curely possible, we that time since we arching for the rest 's other RS-6 cache in August 1955. The y cliff which is well ners appeared in ex- ecided to pull the RF/3 dated 23 November d checked out 100% . In view of this 9 for reburial in the NTITY One (under sep-
one buried for GHTMUNCH-A/9 by Upon review of the files it was a and crystals were included in the decided to exhume and relocate the shall retrieve signal plan PTMEX were unable to do so during this L. After spending the bette of the 1959 RS-6 cache, we moved which had been emplaced by the accache location was exceptionally concealed and very well drained, cache for technical inspection. 1960) and two spare parts kits we under technical inspection by Min we intend to repackage the set as same site. The geographic coordi arate cover). Attachments: 1. Crypto materials 2. IDENTITY (USC) Distributions 2 - EUCA w/atts 1 and 2 2 - Vienna w/att 2 2 - ER m/att 2	in May 1959 a learned that an add RS-6 caching combine RS-6 cache as so OF and substitute I trip. er part of the after on to inspect GRIA gent and good - a crevice. The outside of the consumed with current RS-6 (see pages or in "shelf" considered in the CRIA consumed that instead of this site.	DECLASSOURCE NAZIWA	h a RS-6 and batteries. signal plan (PTMEOOP) Since we have already curely possible, we that time since we arching for the rest is other RS-6 cache in August 1955. The y cliff which is well ners appeared in expected to pull the RF/3 dated 23 November d checked out 100%. In view of this 9 for reburial in the NTITY One (under sep- SIFIED AND RELEASED BY SMETHODS EXEMPTION 3828 R CRIMES BLB FLARBERS
one buried for GHTMUNCH-A/9 by Upon review of the files it was a and crystals were included in the decided to exhume and relocate the shall retrieve signal plan PTMEX were unable to do so during this L. After spending the bette of the 1959 RS-6 cache, we moved which had been emplaced by the accache location was exceptionally concealed and very well drained, cache for technical inspection. 1960) and two spare parts kits we under technical inspection by Min we intend to repackage the set as same site. The geographic coordi arate cover). Attachments: 1. Crypto materials 2. IDENTITY (USC) Distributions 2 - EUCA w/atts 1 and 2 2 - Vienna w/att 2 2 - ER m/att 2	in May 1959 a learned that an add RS-6 caching combine RS-6 cache as so OF and substitute I trip. ar part of the after on to inspect GRIL gent and good - a crevice. The outside of the consumed with current RS-6 (see page are in "shelf" considered in the committee of this site.	DECLASSOURCE NAZIWA	h a RS-6 and batteries. signal plan (PTMEOOP) Since we have already curely possible, we that time since we arching for the rest is other RS-6 cache in August 1955. The y cliff which is well ners appeared in expected to pull the RF/3 dated 23 November d checked out 100%. In view of this 9 for reburial in the NTITY One (under sep- SIFIED AND RELEASED BY SMETHODS EXEMPTION 3828 R CRIMES BLB FLARBERS
one buried for GHTMUNCH-A/9 by Upon review of the files it was a and crystals were included in the decided to exhume and relocate the shall retrieve signal plan PTMEX were unable to do so during this L. After spending the bette of the 1959 RS-6 cache, we moved which had been emplaced by the accache location was exceptionally concealed and very well drained, cache for technical inspection. 1960) and two spare parts kits we under technical inspection by Min we intend to repackage the set as same site. The geographic coordi arate cover). Attachments: 1. Crypto materials 2. IDENTITY (USC) Distributions 2 - EUCA w/atts 1 and 2 2 - Vienna w/att 2 2 - ER m/att 2	in May 1959 alearned that an adde RS-6 caching contine RS-6 cache as according to the RS-6 cache as according to the authority of the after and good - a crevice. The outside of the consumed with current RS-6 (see page are in "shelf" considered in the consument of this site.	DECLASSOURCE NAZIWA	h a RS-6 and batteries. signal plan (PTMEOOP) Since we have already curely possible, we that time since we arching for the rest is other RS-6 cache in August 1955. The y cliff which is well ners appeared in expected to pull the RF/3 dated 23 November d checked out 100%. In view of this 9 for reburial in the NTITY One (under sep- SIFIED AND RELEASED BY SMETHODS EXEMPTION 3828 R CRIMES BLB FLARBERS
one buried for GHTMUNCH-A/9 by Upon review of the files it was a and crystals were included in the decided to exhume and relocate the shall retrieve signal plan PTMEX were unable to do so during this L. After spending the bette of the 1959 RS-6 cache, we moved which had been emplaced by the accache location was exceptionally concealed and very well drained, cache for technical inspection. 1960) and two spare parts kits we under technical inspection by Min we intend to repackage the set as same site. The geographic coordi arate cover). Attachments: 1. Crypto materials 2. IDENTITY (USC) Distributions 2 - EUCA w/atts 1 and 2 2 - Vienna w/att 2 2 - ER m/att 2	in May 1959 a learned that an add RS-6 caching combine RS-6 cache as so OF and substitute I trip. ar part of the after on to inspect GRIL gent and good - a crevice. The outside of the consumed with current RS-6 (see page are in "shelf" considered in the committee of this site.	DECLASSOURCE NAZIWA	h a RS-6 and batteries. signal plan (PTMEOOP) Since we have already curely possible, we that time since we arching for the rest is other RS-6 cache in August 1955. The y cliff which is well ners appeared in expected to pull the RF/3 dated 23 November d checked out 100%. In view of this 9 for reburial in the NTITY One (under sep- SIFIED AND RELEASED BY SMETHODS EXEMPTION 3828 R CRIMES BLB FLARBERS
one buried for GHTMUNCH-A/9 by Upon review of the files it was a and crystals were included in the decided to exhume and relocate the shall retrieve signal plan PTMEX were unable to do so during this L. After spending the bette of the 1959 RS-6 cache, we moved which had been emplaced by the accache location was exceptionally concealed and very well drained, cache for technical inspection. 1960) and two spare parts kits we under technical inspection by Min we intend to repackage the set as same site. The geographic coordi arate cover). Attachments: 1. Crypto materials 2. IDENTITY (USC) Distributions 2 - EUCA w/atts 1 and 2 2 - Vienna w/att 2 2 - ER m/att 2	in May 1959 alearned that an adde RS-6 caching contine RS-6 cache as according to the RS-6 cache as according to the authority of the after and good - a crevice. The outside of the consumed with current RS-6 (see page are in "shelf" considered in the consument of this site.	DECLASSOURCE NAZIWA	h a RS-6 and batteries. signal plan (PTMEOOP) Since we have already curely possible, we that time since we arching for the rest is other RS-6 cache in August 1955. The y cliff which is well ners appeared in expected to pull the RF/3 dated 23 November d checked out 100%. In view of this 9 for reburial in the NTITY One (under sep- SIFIED AND RELEASED BY SMETHODS EXEMPTION 3828 R CRIMES BLB FLARBERS

The second secon

SEPARATE COVIE ATTACHMENT FR

IDENTITY - emes 11° 25' 35" 2 / 17° 12' 20" 2 (Based on Greenwich Meridian)